

Market Updates for Cleanroom Gloves in India and Industrial Gloves in Eastern Europe

Cleanroom Gloves in India

India is a land full of opportunities for players in the healthcare industry. With the increased demand of medical supplies, the cleanroom industry in India will be ripe for growth. Given the absence of domestic manufacturing, is there a great deal of opportunities awaiting us to supply cleanroom gloves? What are the challenges to be faced? Are there any other growing industries in need of cleanroom supplies as India races to emerge as a major global manufacturing hub?

Industrial Gloves in Eastern Europe

As industrial production moves from the west to the east of the continent, the expansion of industrial manufacturing and food processing industries in Eastern Europe signify huge opportunities for Malaysian exporters of industrial gloves to expand its reach beyond the Western Europe. The Eastern Europe region comprising of Poland, Czech Republic, Hungary, Romania, Bulgaria and Slovakia - What are the opportunities in each of these markets? Where shall we begin with this region?
