In today's evolving business landscape, organisations are expected to uphold the highest standards of ethics, transparency, and corporate governance. This awareness session introduces the fundamentals of ISO 37001: Anti-Bribery Management Systems (ABMS), equipping participants with practical knowledge to prevent, detect, and address bribery risks within their organisations. The training covers ethical business practices, key ISO 37001 requirements, implementation approaches, and strategies for fostering a culture of integrity.

For the Malaysian rubber industry, adopting ethical business practices is essential to maintaining market confidence, strengthening stakeholder trust, and enhancing global competitiveness. As international buyers continue to integrate Environmental, Social, and Governance (ESG) considerations into their procurement decisions, effective governance and anti-corruption measures have become critical components of responsible business operations.

Join us to discover how ethical leadership and effective anti-bribery practices can safeguard your organisation's reputation, foster stakeholder confidence, and position your business for long-term sustainable growth.

This webinar aims to:

- + Enhance organisational integrity and ethical business practices
- + Promote understanding of international best practices in anti-bribery management
- + Strengthen governance and compliance capabilities
- + Support the effective implementation of ISO 37001 principles within organisations
